Account is defined to include the checking account, savings account or credit card account stated in this authorization.

Return Premiums: In the event of policy cancellation, any return premiums will be sent in a reasonable time to the named insured on the policy.

I/we understand that it takes several days to set up the first automatic withdrawal and that initial or down-payments may need to be made by another method until the automatic withdrawal is setup.

I/we agree that Inland Mutual may debit your account or credit card for all charges due for the Policy(s) and i/we understand and agree that if a payment is missed, Inland Mutual may debit the account or credit card on the scheduled debit date as well as all overdue payments. I/we also authorize debits of premium payments and other charges due on subsequent renewals of the policy.

A billing statement or pre-authorized payment schedule showing exact scheduled dates and amounts will be provided at least 10 days prior to the first withdrawal or charge. I/we agree that if the amount of a scheduled debit varies by more than $7.00 from the previous debit or if the timing or frequency of one or more of the withdrawals or charges changes, Inland Mutual will send written notice of the amount and/or date of the scheduled debit at least 10 days before the scheduled debit.

Inland Mutual will incur no liability as a result of a debit or charge being dishonored by your financial institution. If a debit or charge is not honored by the financial institution, Inland Mutual will not consider the payment to have been made.

I/we understand that if premiums are not paid within the applicable grace period the policy(s) will terminate. I/we acknowledge that the debit appearing on your bank statement will constitute your receipt for payment, but no payment is deemed made until Inland Mutual actually receives payment.
